Vineyards

Thank goodness Harvest is over and now we can prepare for the next season. We will be doing trellis repair, ground cover for winter and preparation for pruning.

Wine and Art

As you enjoy the winery for wine tasting, tours and Education now we have an additional feast for your eyes.

Paul, as an artist himself put together the exposition of his favorites. It is a nice addition to the art of wine.

Winery

We are excited about our new releases. Pinot 2006; the change in the weather pattern created morning fog and the drop of temperature with sunny days. This helped to create great burgandian complexity. Chardonnay Classic 2004; depth of the roots in the bed rock helped the fullness and the addition two year barrel aging created perfect balance between fruitiness and acidity. Dry Riesling 2004; this is the connoisseurs dream. Fruit, acidity and mineral complexity in perfect balance. Almost identical to Kietzler 2003 Alsace Grand Cru.
